

Allison Jones, CPA

Partner

allison.jones@saltmarshadvisors.com

Allison is a partner who leads audit and assurance engagements. She began her career in public accounting in 1999, and her primary areas of experience include providing audit and assurance services to clients in healthcare, government, nonprofit organizations, professional employer organizations, employee benefit plans, and small businesses.

In addition to her assurance role, Allison leads the firm's Healthcare Advisory practice, which serves a wide range of providers including skilled nursing facilities, home health agencies, and physician practices. Working closely with providers across the spectrum of post-acute and long-term care, the Healthcare Advisory team specializes in offering guidance on reimbursement strategies, regulatory compliance, financial performance, and operational improvement.
