Partner

david.uslan@saltmarshadvisors.com

David is a partner with experience across tax, accounting, and advisory services. He began his career in public accounting over 30 years ago, focusing on serving high-net-worth individuals and growth-oriented companies. His primary areas of experience include providing tax and advisory services to clients in the software, real estate, private equity, professional services, technology, and creative services industries.

His expertise includes federal and state tax compliance, multi-state consulting, trust and estate planning, mergers and acquisitions, accounting method changes, and equity and deferred compensation strategies. Prior to joining Saltmarsh, David held leadership roles at national firms KPMG and Ernst & Young and served as a shareholder at a large firm in Portland, Oregon. He is committed to delivering strategic, forward-thinking solutions that support client growth and long-term success.
